

College of Marin Drama Department Presents a Special Fundraising
Production Honoring Our 50th Anniversary.

Winner of the Best Solo Performance of 2006 Award by the San Francisco Bay Area Theatre Critics Circle.

W. Allen Taylor's one-man show:

Photo: Bryan Hendon

In Search of My Father... WALKIN' TALKIN' BILL HAWKINS

This 90-minute solo show explores the intimate story of Taylor's lifelong search for his father, Bill Hawkins, the first black disc jockey in Cleveland, Ohio. Described by the San Francisco Chronicle, "Taylor's quest for such wisdom is the intriguing core of a piece. The art he makes of that search is not only enlightening but moving, funny and captivating as well." With period rhythm and blues, gospel, and jazz music serving as a backdrop, Taylor performs a wide range of richly-defined characters. The search becomes a bittersweet journey of self-discovery as well as a celebration of the rich cultural legacy of black radio.

Feb. 7 and 8 at 8 PM; Feb. 9 at 2 PM
Suggested Donation: $25

Feb. 6 Preview at 8 PM
Suggested Donation: $10

Studio Theatre, Performing Arts Building
College of Marin Kentfield Campus

More Information: 415.485.9555

DONATE ONLINE: www.marin.edu/advancement.
Select Drama Program under donation selection.

Original Direction by Ellen Sebastian Chang

walkintalkin.com

50 YEARS ON STAGE
Inspiring Student Success

DRAMA DEPARTMENT

